Transport Business-High Profile National Customers

Price $475,000 SDE $233,000

This well-established Auckland based transport business has operated for 9 years and boasts a number of high profile national customers serviced by a very efficient fleet of vehicles.

The business has enjoyed a great relationship and built a reputation for providing exactly what their customer want and just as importantly-delivering! The nature of the business means that most of the customers know months in advance what their requirements will be, which enables the business to forward plan.

The business relies on a simple and easy to manage streamlined system that optimises the allocation of vehicles and drivers for the best results, this approach also minimises overheads and improves profitability.

There is loads of flexibility for a new owner:

- Relocate-currently operating on short term lease
- Operate as stand-alone or add to an existing business
- Ideal Husband & wife team

The hard work has been done and there is real opportunity for growth, either way the business is profitable and is showing $233,000 p.a to a working owner. If you are serious about getting into the transport business you can't go past this one!
